Dear Lee, George, Fred, Chad, Louis, and the Cameo team:

Thank you, thank you, thank you for our incredible new kitchen. You literally made our vision a reality, and then some. Not only is our kitchen beautiful but functional. Brian and I have been so impressed by the craftsmanship in all aspects of the project, including what is not visible but essential to the inner workings of the room. We assume that every one of your renovations includes expected structural challenges. The team's detailed planning is phenomenal, but your responses to snags showed real creative problem solving.

All aspects of the design, planning, communication, preparation, and execution of the project have been seamless, professional, and enjoyable. We are so grateful for your incredibly hard work as well as your obvious proficiency in your respective professions. The kitchen is such an important part of family and home and we plan to maximize our new digs. Party time!

Your team is always welcome in our home. In addition, please don't hesitate to give our name or number to clients who may be interested in a design similar to ours. We would be happy to talk to them or invite them over in person and sing your praises.

Best -

Dorine, Brian
